

Annapurna Circuit Trek with Luxury Helicopter Return

Duration: 13 Days Days

Itinerary (Plan)

Day 1 Arrival in Kathmandu

- Time : Whole Day
- Max Altitude : 1,350 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport, where your team welcomes you and transfers you to a luxury hotel. This day is fully dedicated to rest, recovery from travel, and preparation for the trek. You will meet your guide, check trekking gear, and attend a detailed briefing about altitude safety and route planning.

Day 2 Kathmandu Sightseeing & Trek Preparation

- Time : 4–5 hours
- Max Altitude : 1,350 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You explore UNESCO World Heritage Sites such as Swayambhunath Stupa and Kathmandu Durbar Square. In the afternoon, your guide conducts a full trek briefing, covering altitude precautions, packing check, and route overview. Body impact: Light activity helps you adjust gradually after international travel while staying at low altitude.

Day 3 Flight to Chame | Explore Village

- Time : 2–3 hours
- Max Altitude : 2,670 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

A scenic domestic flight takes you toward the Annapurna region, followed by arrival in Chame. You explore the village and surrounding landscapes.

Body impact: You enter moderate altitude for the first time. Oxygen levels slightly drop, but physical strain is minimal due to light walking.

Day 4 Trek to Upper Pisang

- Time : 5–6 hours
- Max Altitude : 3,300 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

The trail passes forests, suspension bridges, and terraced fields with views of Annapurna II. Gradual ascent makes this a steady trekking day.

Body impact: Breathing becomes slightly heavier as altitude increases. Slow pacing is important for adaptation.

Day 5 Trek to Braga / Manang

- Time : 5–6 hours
- Max Altitude : 3,540 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You pass through Gyaru and Ngawal villages, crossing monasteries and mani walls. The landscape becomes more alpine and culturally rich.

Body impact: Mild fatigue may appear due to altitude gain, but terrain is manageable.

Day 6 Acclimatization Day in Manang

- Time : 3–4 hours
- Max Altitude : 3,540 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You explore Gangapurna Lake or nearby viewpoints for acclimatization.

Body impact: This “climb high, sleep low” method helps your body adjust to reduced oxygen levels, reducing altitude sickness risk.

Day 7 Trek to Yak Kharka

- Time : 4–5 hours
- Max Altitude : 4,050 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You enter alpine meadows and yak grazing lands with increasingly dramatic landscapes.

Body impact: Oxygen levels drop noticeably. Walking becomes slower and more effortful.

Day 8 Trek to Thorong Phedi

- Time : 3–4 hours
- Max Altitude : 4,450 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

A shorter but important acclimatization stage before the pass. Terrain becomes rocky and steep.

Body impact: Body begins adapting to high altitude stress; hydration and rest become crucial.

Day 9 Cross Thorong La Pass ? Descend to Muktinath

- Time : 8–10 hours
- Max Altitude : 5,416 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You cross the iconic Thorong La Pass, one of the highest trekking passes in the world, before descending to Muktinath.

Body impact: This is the most physically demanding day due to extreme altitude and long duration. Slow pace and strong mental endurance are essential.

Day 10 Drive Muktinath ? Jomsom

- Time : 2–3 hours
- Max Altitude : 2,700 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

A scenic drive through the Kali Gandaki valley brings you to Jomsom.

Body impact: Oxygen levels improve as you descend, allowing faster recovery.

Day 11 Fly Jomsom ? Pokhara

- Time : 25–30 minutes
- Max Altitude : 820 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You fly over dramatic mountain landscapes into Pokhara. Free time to relax at the lakeside.

Body impact: Rapid descent significantly improves oxygen intake and energy levels.

Day 12 Fly Pokhara ? Kathmandu

- Time : 25–30 minutes
- Max Altitude : 1,350 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD

You return to Kathmandu for rest, shopping, or leisure activities.

Body impact: Full recovery phase begins as altitude stabilizes.

Day 13 Departure

- Time : Whole Day
- Max Altitude : 1,350 m

Accommodation: Hotel / Teahouse

Meal: BLD
